

Corpus Christi Sunday

18 June 2017 (Year A)

Mass intention today: The conversion of Margaret

Mass intention on Monday: Fr Paul Handibode (McCormack)

Psalm response

Rosalie Bonighton (1946–2011). Calamus licence 2551

O praise the Lord, Je - - ru - sa - lem!

The front of the news-sheet contains information useful in the Mass. Notices for the week and further ahead are overleaf.

The beginning of Mass

The prayers of preparation are said in the sacristy before Mass. If you would like the text of these prayers, please ask: they are contained in the blue said Order of Service.

Mass during Ordinary Time

We continue the use of Merbecke (at number 542 in the hymnbook) for the ordinary of the Mass including the Kyrie, Gloria, Sanctus/Benedictus and Agnus Dei. Merbecke didn't set any of the Memorial Acclamations, so "The Mystery of Faith" will be said.

There's a Sequence today within the Gospel alleluia: you can find it on page 8 of the Supplement to Mass.

The end of Mass: Procession

There's a Procession of the Blessed Sacrament at the end of Mass today, so the Concluding Rite on page 8 of the Mass booklet is omitted together with the Anthem to Our Lady, as Benediction will be given. Please join the procession as it passes you.

Second Collection

There will be a second collection today for aid for victims of the Grenfell Tower fire in North Kensington.

About what we call each Sunday

The Ordinariate has its own calendar, which includes older titles and an older way of counting Ordinary Time — we count Sundays after Epiphany and Trinity, and the Sundays before Lent start with Septuagesima. The Ordinariate transfers various festivals (like Corpus Christi) to Sunday along with the rest of the Church in England & Wales.

When receiving Communion please form a single line along the sanctuary step, kneeling if you are able to. If you receive in one kind only please wait until the chalice has passed you before moving back to your pew. One arm across your chest will show that you do not wish to receive the chalice.

Compline will be said at 8pm this evening at 23 St Georges Road.

If you missed the recent veneration of the Relics of the Fatima Saints at Warwick Street, there will be a further opportunity at Arundel Cathedral over the weekend of 1–2 July, and details are available on the cathedral website www.arundelcathedral.org.

If you are not participating in the Ordinariate pilgrimage next Sunday afternoon, or you will have returned in time for the Mass on Sunday afternoon (25 June), please speak to Fr Neil: we need a couple of people to help with refreshments after Mass.

We hope to be offering the opportunity to learn more about Plainchant for the Mass, including the Propers, and to be able to sing for occasional Missæ Cantatæ at OLR. No details yet, but if you might be interested please speak to Andrew or email him at andrew@schola.org.uk.

The sanctuary carpet at OLR has now been taken up and the floor has been completed. There is no padding for kneeling at the communion rail, so you may wish to be prepared with something if you need it for the Monday evening Mass. We're in the process of getting additional carpet to kneel on at St Agnes.

The diocesan parish is holding its AGM on Thursday 20 July at 7:30 in the Parish Centre at OLR.

Dates for the diary

- The Ordinariate Pilgrimage to Walsingham will take place on Saturday 24 June.
- St Peter & St Paul, a holy day of obligation, falls on Thursday 29 June. There will be a number of Masses available and details will be published next week.

The Lay Community of St Benedict is a national group of people of all ages and denominations, dedicated to the Gospel and spirituality of St Benedict. If you didn't get to the meeting yesterday and would like more details, please see leaflets which are available, look online at www.laybenedictines.org, or ask Fr Neil.
