

Tenth Sunday after Trinity

20 August 2017 (Sunday 20) (Year A)

Mass intention today: Freda Moon 80th birthday (Moon)

Mass intention on Monday: Lucy (Edwards)

Psalm response

Ian Forrester (1956–). Calamus licence 2551

Let the peoples praise you, O God: let all the peoples praise you.

We're very pleased to welcome Fr Gerard back to celebrate Mass this afternoon while Fr Neil is on holiday.

The words of the Mass are found in the "Holy Mass" booklet with the red-on-white cover. Mass in English is on the left-hand side of each page; the Latin original and a Polish translation are on the right.

The Ordinariate Use is a Catholic Mass approved by the Holy See. It uses the form of the usual Novus Ordo Mass, but the English words have followed a different path through the Tradition of the Church and are not the same.

The beginning of Mass

The prayers of preparation are said in the sacristy before Mass. If you would like the text of these prayers, please ask: they are contained in the blue said Order of Service.

Mass during Ordinary Time

We continue the use of Merbecke (at number 542 in the hymnbook) for the ordinary of the Mass including the Kyrie, Gloria, Sanctus/Benedictus and Agnus Dei. Merbecke didn't set any of the Memorial Acclamations, so "The Mystery of Faith" will be said.

Receiving Communion

When receiving Communion please form a single line along the sanctuary step, kneeling if you are able to. If you receive in one kind only please wait until the chalice has passed you before moving back to your pew. One or both arms across your chest will show that you do not wish to receive the chalice.

The end of Mass: Anthem to Our Lady

Following the dismissal and final hymn, the Anthem to Our Lady is the Salve Regina which you can find on the right hand side of page 11 (it's sung in Latin). If you would like the music please ask for a Mass Supplement.

Compline is currently scheduled to be sung at OLR next Sunday evening.

Fr Neil is on holiday until 3rd September. If you need the ministry of a priest in the meantime please contact the Presbytery on 01323 723222.

Next week's news-sheet will again be prepared early due to holidays. To include a notice next Sunday, please email it to Andrew on newsletter@eastbourneordinariate.org.uk by Thursday evening.

Members of the Walsingham Association can share in the Shrine's spirituality, share in the daily masses at the Shrine and unite in the daily prayers of all members. There's also a quarterly newsletter to keep in touch with the Shrine at Walsingham.

Forms are now available to join, and if there is sufficient interest it would also be possible to form a local group in Eastbourne. Please see Fr Neil in a couple of weeks' time.

The Association is running a retreat in Walsingham from 7–10 November (£124 or £191), leading up to the AGM 10–12 November (£94 or £134, plus £24 for the AGM dinner). Details are available from the Association or the Pilgrim Bureau in Walsingham.

On the website

The Annual Report given at the diocesan parish's AGM features on the website, if you weren't able to be present. On other pages the site features the Mission Statement, recordings of much of the liturgical music we use together with Orders of Service. If you'd like to get know our Mass settings better, or Compline, or the plainsong Salve Regina which ends Compline and Mass on the days after Trinity, it's all there. Rotas for Mass and the current music list are also available on the members' page. If you don't have access, please ask Andrew for details.

Dates for the diary

Fish & Chip supper on Friday 22 September in the Hall at St Agnes. Before eating, we'll be introducing some new music which will feature in the liturgy.

Polyphony Ensemble will be singing a concert of sacred and secular music on Saturday 30 September at 7:00pm, to raise funds for St Agnes. Free entry with retiring collection. Raffle and refreshments.
