Some seed fell in-to rich soil, and yield-ed a rich har-vest.

The front of the news-sheet contains information useful in the Mass. Notices for the week and further ahead are overleaf.

The beginning of Mass

The prayers of preparation are said in the sacristy before Mass. If you would like the text of these prayers, please ask: they are contained in the blue said Order of Service.

Mass during Ordinary Time

We continue the use of Merbecke (at number 542 in the hymnbook) for the ordinary of the Mass including the Kyrie, Gloria, Sanctus/Benedictus and Agnus Dei. Merbecke didn't set any of the Memorial Acclamations, so "The Mystery of Faith" will be said.

The anthem during Communion today was written by Fr Gerard Bradley, Director of Spiritual Formation, Music and Liturgical Formation at St John's Seminary Womersley.

The end of Mass: Anthem to Our Lady

Following the dismissal and final hymn, the Anthem to Our Lady is the Salve Regina which you can find on the right hand side of page 11 (it's sung in Latin). If you would like the music please ask for a Mass Supplement.

About what we call each Sunday

The Ordinariate has its own calendar, which includes older titles and an older way of counting Ordinary Time — we count Sundays after Epiphany and Trinity, and the Sundays before Lent start with Septuagesima.

On the website

As well as the revised Mission Statement, the website also features recordings of much of the liturgical music we use, on the Orders of Service page. If you'd like to get know our Mass settings better, or Compline, or the plainsong Salve Regina which ends Compline and Mass on the days after Trinity, it's all there. Rotas for Mass and the current music list are also available on the members' page. If you don't have access, please ask Andrew for details.

When receiving Communion please form a single line along the sanctuary step, kneeling if you are able to. If you receive in one kind only please wait until the chalice has passed you before moving back to your pew. One arm across your chest will show that you do not wish to receive the chalice.

Compline will be said at 8pm this evening at 86 Channel View Road.

Bishop Steven Lopes of the Ordinariate of the Chair of St Peter (in the US & Canada) has written a superb analysis of Divine Worship and the Ordinariate Use of the Mass in particular. You can find it online as a PDF at <http://tinyurl.com/ybk9tusw> and there are a couple of printed copies available here today.

Fr Neil is attending the Governing Council of the Ordinariate on Tuesday. Please let him know if you would be interested in having

- a simple Office book for Morning and Evening Prayer and Compline in traditional language; and/or
- a study-size version of the Divine Worship Missal (similar to the existing study version of the Novus Ordo Missal).

We hope to be offering the opportunity to learn more about Plainchant for the Mass, including the Propers, and to be able to sing for occasional Missæ Cantatæ at OLR. We are still gathering expressions of interest in order to gauge how best to run things, so if you might be interested please speak to Andrew or email him at andrew@schola.org.uk.
